Examiner Le

Attached are the amended claims to put them into allowable form. As we had to put the allowed multiple dependent claims into independent claim format, it has become rather complex. To assist you, I am also attaching a worksheet document, to show how the claims were constructed with the various dependent limitations. Note that after claim 424, the claim number in the worksheet may be off by one digit.

My apologies for the delay, but the number of claims and the multiple dependencies made this difficult.

Regards,
